Ingrid C. A. Rasmussen, Angela T. Khabeb, and Doug Mork, Pastors

Welcome Our New Members!

Kaitlin Scott

Kaitlin moved to Minneapolis last year and has been so happy to find a community here at Holy Trinity! She's a teacher and loves working with youth. She also loves making music and she's loved the music here! Kaitlin's excited about Holy Trinity's commitment to social justice and is eager to join that work more actively.

Sara Holmes

Sara (she/her) is a born and raised Minnesotan. Currently Sara's in grad school at the U of M for education and she teaches math at Roosevelt High School. Holy Trinity's focus on social justice in the faith context with traditional worship drew her in, and fun times on the August Boundary Waters trip welcomed her into the community. She's excited to engage more in our blessed gathering!

Sheryl Udem

You may recognize Sheryl—she has been attending Holy Trinity off and on with her daughter, Lisa Martens, for the past 8 years and has gone on several church retreats. Sheryl moved from White Bear Lake to Longfellow in August and knew immediately where her new church home would be! She's excited for the adventure of becoming a member here and looks forward to becoming a part of our community. (and getting a nametag!)

Abs Trewin

Abs is from Decorah, a very Norwegian-Lutheran town. He's not Norwegian, but he's been actively involved in ministry for a long time. Abs was a camp counselor and Sunday School/VBS teacher for a long time. He loves music, loves God, and loves people! Abs has been in a period of discernment, considering seminary for word and sacrament ministry, but right now he's kind of caught up in wondering what the right path may be.

James Nysse

James is a recent graduate from Luther College with a BA in English Composition and a minor in Computer Science. He's happy to be joining Holy Trinity as a musician and a member. James currently sings in the Adult Choir and rings under the instruction of (housemate) Logan Olson.

Logan Olson

Logan is the new director of Holy Trinity's Gloria Ringers

Handbell Ensemble. He's been making a joyful noise on the handbells for over 12 years, more than half of his lifetime! In May 2022, Logan graduated with a degree in Environmental Studies from Luther College. He has a strong passion for environmental protection and justice which led him to his current position as a Natural Resource Technician with the Anoka Conservation District. At Luther College, Logan thoroughly enjoyed being a member of Luther Ringers and the Nordic Choir. Before Holy Trinity, he was fortunate to direct the delightful handbell ringers of a church in Spring Grove, Minnesota. Handbells have been such an enriching part of Logan's life, and he loves to share his passion for this unique art form with more people. He loves making music and being part of the vibrant, justice-seeking community of Holy Trinity.

WEAVING PROJECT - INVITING YOU TO BRING OBJECTS OF LIFE OCTOBER 9-23

A photo of your pet, seeds, a college acceptance letter, tools for a new hobby, a pride flag... During these weeks, we invite you to bring an object that somehow represents life for you.

- Bring your objects to the box in the Community Room.
- We'll weave your objects into the community tapestries; your objects will not be returned to you. If there's a cherished item you want included, consider a photo, scan, drawing or other creative representation!
- Objects should be light (lighter than a medium apple or 150 grams) and fit in a shoe box. Contact weavers Ryana or Mariah if you have questions. Some objects may be outside our given bounds but still can work! (like a stick, for example).

Please make time to stop by the outdoor fiber arts project (just east of the library on Lake Street) to write thoughts inspired by the theme on a piece of fabric. Tie or weave in the fabric to the wire and add to this bright and fluttering display of community stories and emotions.

MCC OFFERS WHITE CHURCH TRUTHS CONFERENCE

In order to work for racial justice, there are truths that must be faced, even about the faith practiced in most Minnesota churches. At the White Church Truths conference, attendees will face the truths hidden in their own beliefs and open their eyes more clearly to the future – and their role in it.

Dr. Michael Emerson, professor and department head of sociology at the University of Illinois Chicago, will be keynote speaker.

Saturday, November 5: 9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Westminster Presbyterian Church, Minneapolis

In the U.S. today, an entire religion has developed around the worship of the dominance, centrality, privilege, and assumed universality of being white, offers Dr. Emerson.
