Sugarcane

Testimony on Indian Boarding Schools

Please join us for a showing of Sugarcane, an award-winning documentary about Indian boarding schools. Sugarcane will be shown at Holy Trinity on Sunday, January 18th at 11:30 a.m. in the Bartch Room. Sign up in the Community Room.

Sugarcane testifies to the tragic legacy of Indian boarding schools, which operated in the U.S. from 1819-1969. More than 500 boarding schools operated for some time during that period in 37 states or territories. Over half of them over were sponsored and operated by churches, including Lutherans. More than 400 of these boarding schools were partly supported financially by the Federal Government.

Attendance at these schools was mandatory. Indian children were forcibly removed from their families and tribes. The purpose of those schools was to extinguish the children's Indian cultural identity and to assimilate them into American life. This was expressed as "Kill the Indian; save the child." Coercion and intimidation were used to do this. Verbal, physical, and sexual abuse by staff were common.

Overcrowded dormitory living made it easy for infectious diseases to spread. Deaths of children from disease or abuse were fairly common, and often were not reported to their families. In many instances, deceased children were buried either on school grounds or in nearby church or municipal cemeteries. Their graves often were not individually marked. The effects were profound and continue to affect survivors and their families today. Former President Biden publicly apologized for the Federal Government's role in boarding schools at the Gila River Indian Reservation in Arizona in 2024.

The ELCA is responding to the tragedy of Indian boarding schools with its Truth Seeking and Truth Telling Initiative on Indian Boarding Schools. The aim is to find boarding schools run by Lutheran congregations of ELCA predecessor churches, recover their boarding school's records, and to tell the truth about those schools by making any records they find available to survivors and their families.

This past Summer's ELCA Churchwide Assembly overwhelmingly passed a Memorial that endorsed: a) holding a day of remembrance of Indian boarding schools in congregations; b) preparing educational materials on these schools for youth and adults in congregations; c) recognizing and encouraging

January 11 "Space for Trauma"

In this past week, Minneapolis has once again experienced the trauma of a neighbor being killed by those supposedly assigned to serve and protect our community. This on top of countless abductions, threats to immigrant and BIPOC communities, trans neighbors under direct attack...It's all been too much.

When things are overwhelming, it can be good to come together for support and to share the impact. Katie Murray, clinical psychologist, and Nicole Lange, certified acupuncturist and herbalist, are inviting you to meet from 9:00-9:50 to reflect on the impact of these events on your whole person and hopefully leave with a few strategies to regulate your nervous system in the face of collective trauma.

January 18 "Adult Forum with Pastors and Council Leadership"

Join us at 9:00 a.m. in the Library or on Zoom as we prepare for this year's annual meeting. There is a lot of business to cover during the annual meeting, which will be held following the 10:00 a.m. worship service on Sunday, January 25. Come and preview the meeting agenda with the pastors and Council representatives during the adult forum hour. Bring your questions!

THIS WEEK

WELCOME TARYN MEYER!

We are so excited to welcome Taryn Meyer (she/her) as our new Children, Youth, and Family Ministry Coordinator!

Taryn was raised in Caledonia, MN, where, from an early age, church and faith community were a significant part of her life. Today she is especially passionate about creating inclusive spaces where children, youth, and their families can experience belonging, safety, and joy.

Taryn graduated with a bachelor's degree from Hope College in Holland, Michigan, where she studied Psychology, Dance, and Exercise Science. She brings several summers of Bible camp and outdoor ministry experience, including work at Ox Lake Bible Camp, Camp Wapo, and as a Boundary Waters canoe guide and Family Camp Coordinator at Wilderness Canoe Base. These roles helped her grow as a leader who builds meaningful relationships, supports young people through challenges, and nurtures community in thoughtful and creative ways.

In addition to her ministry background, Taryn has experience in schools and youth programs, including working as a licensed substitute teacher and teaching dance to children and teens. These experiences have strengthened her ability to support young people with a wide range of learning styles and abilities—and she brings a deep commitment to creating spaces that are compassionate, affirming, and attentive to the diverse needs of our community.

Taryn also loves organizing and working behind the scenes. She brings strong skills in planning, building systems, and breaking big projects into manageable steps, especially in ways that empower volunteers and invite many hands into shared ministry.

Whether she's in a canoe in the Boundary Waters or in the gym at Holy Trinity, Taryn looks forward to meeting you and spending time with you!

ROSES IN THE COMMUNITY ROOM (ALL MORNING)

Lake Street businesses are taking a real hit right now, and many of our neighbors—shop owners, workers, and families—are feeling the strain. This Sunday, we're responding with a small act of beauty and solidarity: we'll be selling roses from Miguel Sanchez at Mercado Central. Roses will be available with a sliding-scale donation of $15–$100, and proceeds will go toward immigration support. Come by, take home something lovely, and help keep Lake Street's resilience blooming.

PICK UP YOUR SEASONAL CALENDAR, BOOK, AND 2025 GIVING STATEMENT IN THE COMMUNITY ROOM

This Sunday, congregants are invited to pick up their seasonal calendars, which share about congregational happenings from January through May. Along with the calendar, each household will also receive a copy of our February all-congregation read, The Power of Bridging: How to Build a World Where We All Belong by John A. Powell. In February 2026, we will lead a congregation-wide book group exploring Powell's hopeful, practical vision for healing divides and nurturing belonging in a fragmented world. Together, we'll reflect on what it means to bridge across differences and practice simple, meaningful actions that strengthen connection in our daily lives. Thousands across the region have already joined this movement through the Bush Foundation's book club, and we're excited to add our voices to the conversation. Your 2025 giving statements are also included in the packet—thank you!

NICOLAS JARAMILLO BEGINS VIDEO PROJECT ON DREAMS (10:00-12:00)

Remember when we wrote our dreams on little cards during December? Holy Trinity artist, Anna Kleven, is turning our dreams into an art piece that will hang in the church building and remind us that we follow a God who is more interested in tending our dreams than in fueling our despair. In addition to the art piece, over the next month or two, Nicolas Jaramillo—a local videographer and visual storyteller with Nigoja Productions—will be creating a video to share our dreams. With a background in community-centered filmmaking, Nicolas brings a collaborative spirit to every project, often amplifying voices that are underrepresented or overlooked. Grounded in the belief that storytelling can be a tool for connection and change, Nicolas uses his lens to highlight the beauty, complexity, and resilience within every community he serves. Bring your dreams—big or small—on Sunday and we'll start to collect them on video!

BIG MEETING AFTER WORSHIP

SUPPORT LAKE STREET BUSINESSES: BUY TAMALES!

We're sponsoring another round of tamale sales January 18th after the worship service in the Community Room. This time tamales come from El San Miguel Bakery on Lake and 16th Ave. Choose from chicken, pork or cheese and peppers. (Sorry, no vegetarian options available). Tamales have a basic price of $3.34 each which we'll round up $4.00 or whatever you choose to pay in addition. All profits will go back to El San Miguel. This family owned business says they are deeply endangered economically by the decrease in sales due to patrons fearful of ICE. Your purchase of tamales will be a tremendous help to El San Miguel.

After purchasing your tamales, please join us in the Bartsch Room on Sunday, January 18, at 11:30 a.m. for a showing of the award-winning debut feature documentary from Julian Brave NoiseCat and Emily Kassie. Sugarcane is a groundbreaking investigation into an Indian residential school. He preached nonviolence and demanded that love be returned for hate. Awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 1964, he was killed by an assassin on April 4, 1968. We honor his memory and witness.
