ALL SAINTS SUNDAY

NOVEMBER 1, 2026

HOLY TRINITY LUTHERAN CHURCH
MINNEAPOLIS

WELCOME TO ALL

We gather and worship on Dakota Homeland.

The people of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church wish to extend a special welcome to all visitors! Please leave your name and phone number on the visitor card found in the pew.

We are committed to the inclusion of all people, with no exception. Therefore, we practice open communion, welcoming all to the table to receive the sacrament of Holy Communion.

Children are full participants in this congregation's worship, educational, and community life! The Mary Martha Room is a quiet space for infants needing to nurse or to nap. For active toddlers, the Community Room has a Children's Corner with books and a table at which to play. Our ushers are ready to assist you in finding the place that best fits your family's needs.*

Accessible and all-gender restrooms are located in the basement.*
Single-use, all-gender restrooms are located on the 1st floor.*

For over forty years, this congregation has advocated for the full welcome, inclusion, and equity of lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, intersex, and asexual (LGBTQIA+) Lutherans in all aspects of the church and the community. We invite all people into lives of authenticity, integrity, and wholeness.

Hearing assist devices and large-print bulletins are available. Ask an usher if you are interested.*

Our services are livestreamed on Vimeo and Facebook every week. The live shot includes the main floor of the sanctuary. Our members who watch from home love to see their friends at church! If for privacy reasons you prefer not to be on camera, the balcony is outside of the camera's range.

If you are seeking pastoral care, please speak to a pastor today.

PRELUDE Selections for Solo Cello

+GATHERING HYMN For All the Saints

Please stand and face the cross at the rear of the sanctuary.

+GREETING

The grace of Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.
And also with you.

+PRAYER OF THE DAY

God of all people from every tribe and language; you call witnesses who sing your praise, live your grace, and work for peace: may we share their faith and know our need for you that we might be a blessing to the hunger of your world; through Jesus Christ, whose body we are.
Amen.

Please be seated.

STEWARDSHIP TEMPLE TALK—KELLY WATERMAN

WORD

FIRST READING Revelation 7:9-17

Word of God; word of life. Thanks be to God.

PSALM 34:1-10, 22 Michel Guimont

Refrain (First time: cantor, then all)

I will bless the LORD at all times, God's praise always on my lips;
In the LORD my soul shall make its boast. The humble shall hear and be glad.
Glorify the LORD with me. Together let us praise God's name.
I sought the LORD and was heard; from all my terrors set free. Refrain

Look towards God and be radiant; let your faces not be abashed.
When the poor cry out the LORD hears them and rescues them from all their distress.
The angel of the LORD is encamped around those who fear God, to rescue them.
Taste and see that the LORD is good. They are happy who seek refuge in God. Refrain

SECOND READING 1 John 3:1-3

Word of God; word of life. Thanks be to God.

+GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Alleluia!

+GOSPEL READING Matthew 5:1-12

Word of God; word of life. Thanks be to God.

+HYMN OF THE DAY Abide with Me

BAPTISM Lyndon Jay Brooks

Child of Paul and Annie Brooks

Sponsors: Jim and Susan Radtke, friends of the family

God, who is rich in mercy and love, gives us a new birth into a living hope through the sacrament of baptism. By water and the Word, God delivers us from sin and death and raises us to new life in Jesus Christ. We are united with all the baptized in one body of Christ, anointed with the gift of the Holy Spirit, and joined in God's mission for the life of the world.

PARENTS: We present Lyndon Jay Brooks for baptism.

Paul and Annie, will you, with God's help, strive to share your love, faith, wisdom, and understanding with Lyndon and make for him a home where he may learn the way of Christ and join in Christ's work of love, peace, and justice? Will you share with him the church's life—worship, the Lord's Supper, and fellowship? Will you help and encourage him to live in the covenant of baptism and in communion with the church?

We will.

Jim and Susan, will you seek to nurture Lyndon in the Christian faith as you are able and help him grow in the Christian faith and life?

We will.

Will you, members of this congregation who form the community of love in which Lyndon will grow, keep him and his caregivers in your hearts and in your prayers, and support them in the journey of life?

We will.

THANKSGIVING FOR BAPTISM

Joined to Christ in the waters of baptism, we gather together clothed with God's mercy and forgiveness. Let us give thanks for the gift of baptism.

We give you thanks, O God, for in the beginning your Spirit moved over the waters and by your Word you created the world, calling forth life in which you took delight. It's all yours—the earth and the sky, the fruit trees, the sun and the moon, the wild animals, and everything that creeps upon the ground.

By the gift of water you nourish and sustain us. We give you glory for the Kickapoo River, Devil's Lake, and the Mississippi River, for cloud and rain, for dew and snow. Your waters are below us, around us, and above us. Our life is born in you. You are the fountain of resurrection.

Praise to you for your saving waters. Through the waters of the flood you delivered Noah and his family, and through the sea you led your people Israel from slavery into freedom. Hagar discovers your well, Naaman is cleansed of his leprosy, and the Samaritan woman will never be thirsty again. At the river your Child was baptized by John and anointed with the Holy Spirit.

Pour out your Holy Spirit into this water and into all who are gathered here this day. Illumine our days. Blanket us with your grace. Enfold us with your peace. Satisfy all our thirst with your eternal fountain, and bring to birth the body of Christ, who lives with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

+APOSTLES' CREED

Let us confess our faith in the words of the Apostles' Creed.

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.*
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Please be seated.

BAPTISM AND SEAL

Lyndon Jay Brooks, I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Loving God, we thank you for the life of Lyndon and the new life you give to us through Christ. Sustain him with the gift of your Holy Spirit. Bless him that he may come to know what you have made known. Give him grace to grow in faith and life, wisdom and understanding, and joy in your everlasting presence. Amen.

Lyndon, child of God, you have been sealed by the Holy Spirit and marked with the cross of Christ forever. Amen.

CONGREGATIONAL REPRESENTATIVE: Jesus said, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will have the light of life."

Through baptism God has made us members of the community of faith that is centered in Christ Jesus. Let us welcome the newly baptized.

We welcome you, Lyndon, into the community of faith. We receive you as a member of the body of Christ and into the mission we share. Join us in giving thanks and praise to God and bearing God's creative and redeeming word to all the world.

The congregation may offer acclamation with applause.
Asperges (sprinkling with water) is offered during the hymn as a reminder of baptism.

BAPTISMAL HYMN Love Astounding

ALL SAINTS REMEMBRANCE

We celebrate with the blessed ones from this community who have been recently received in Holy Baptism.

Apollo Anatol Beltrandy y Rendón ✠ Eira Martens ✠ Lyndon Brooks ✠ Frances Rose Heitman

You are invited to name aloud anyone whose birth, baptism, or confirmation is in your thoughts today.

A bell will toll as we speak the names of loved ones.

HYMN If We Live

We remember the beloved members and friends of this community of faith who now rest in God.

Mike Miller ✠ Herb Hanson ✠ Pat Lundquist ✠ Rick Lathrop ✠ Phil Jury

You are invited to name aloud those who have died and are in your thoughts today.
A bell will toll as we speak the names of loved ones.

HYMN If We Live

+INTERCESSIONS Keith and Libby Olstad

With the whole people of God in Christ Jesus, let us pray for the church, those in need, and all of God's creation.

(silence)

God of creation, you have made us your children. You love us just as we are. Nudge us to love our siblings, those in our families and those in distant communities. Open our hearts and minds to each other. Gracious God,

Your mercy is great.

God of justice, you long to gather a great multitude from every nation – all tribes and peoples and languages. In this election season, fuel our hunger and thirst for fairness in voting, for honoring rights, and for accepting outcomes. Empower us to do justice and teach us to make peace. Gracious God,

Your mercy is great.

God of beauty, we see your creative handiwork in lush autumn colors and seasonal changes. We also see the threats of climate change and deterioration throughout your creation. Inspire our imaginations for sustaining life. Make us mindful of future generations and what we owe them. Gracious God,

Your mercy is great.

God of history, we remember today the saints who've gone before us – sons, daughters, partners, mothers, fathers, all the relations who fill our family albums. Comfort all who mourn losses – of health, of loved ones, of employment, of shelter, of peace of mind. You promise to wipe away all tears and assure us that we are not alone. Touch with your healing power all who are suffering distress and isolation, fear or depression, sickness or loss. Among your children here, we pray especially for Wayne Vetter; Lyle Steinfeldt; Carol Kelly; Jim Langworthy's brother, David; Maelene Krig's brother-in-law, Jeff Ramsdell; Carol Masters's son, Paul; Ron Duty; Donna Heyer's grandson, Jeremy; Senem Yumsak; Ayhan Yumsak; Aysel Yumsak; Marlene Peterson,; Merlin Wells; Dorothy Kelly; Tre Tellor's mom Jill; Karen Batdorf's sister, Marie; Josie Tober; Stella Townsend; the family, friends, and members of The Link community upon the deaths of Calvin Wolf, Jonathan Simmons, and Rainy Cunningham; and those we name aloud or in our hearts (the congregation may name loved ones in need of God's care). Grant health and wholeness wherever it is sought. Gracious God,

Your mercy is great.

You are invited to offer spoken petitions. At the conclusion of your petition, please close with "Gracious God," to which the congregation will respond, "Your mercy is great."

Receive our prayers and hopes, God of mercy and justice, as we pray in the name of Jesus the Christ. Amen.

MEAL

+PEACE

The peace of Christ be with you always. And also with you.

You are invited to exchange words and signs of friendship and love with those around you.

OFFERING The Journey Home Craig Courtney
Adult Choir; Teresa Richardson, cello

We walk by faith and not by sight, this life a winding journey home.
Although at times the path is dark, we do not travel it alone.

There is no cause for fear or dread.
The Spirit knows what lies ahead,
remaining faithful by our side,
an everpresent help and guide.
Alleluia.

We know in part; we dimly see as through a darkened glass, yet we shall know as we are known, our vision clear at last.
What waits for us beyond the veil lies hidden from our sight in mystery until the time we cross into its light.

Our journey does not go unseen by those who stand on heaven's shore.
They do not sleep. They watch and wait, the saints who traveled here before.
Like them, we too will run the race and meet the Savior face to face inside the new Jerusalem, our homeward journey at an end! Alleluia.

Baskets will be passed in the sanctuary. If you prefer to donate to the mission and ministry using Venmo or card, the QR codes can be found on the back page of the bulletin.

+OFFERTORY HYMN As Saints of Old

Communion servers are invited to come forward at this time.

+OFFERING PRAYER

Eternal God, our time, talents, and treasures are gifts from you. Receive what we offer, and all that you entrust to us, until hungry no more, all the world is fed, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Guide.

Amen.

+GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Savior Jesus Christ. By the witness of the saints you show us the hope of our calling, and strengthen us to run the race set before us, that we may delight in your mercy and rejoice with them in glory. And so, with all the saints, with the choirs of angels and the hosts of heaven, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

+SANCTUS

+WORDS OF INSTITUTION

+LORD'S PRAYER

We pray together,

Our Creator, Our Mother, Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
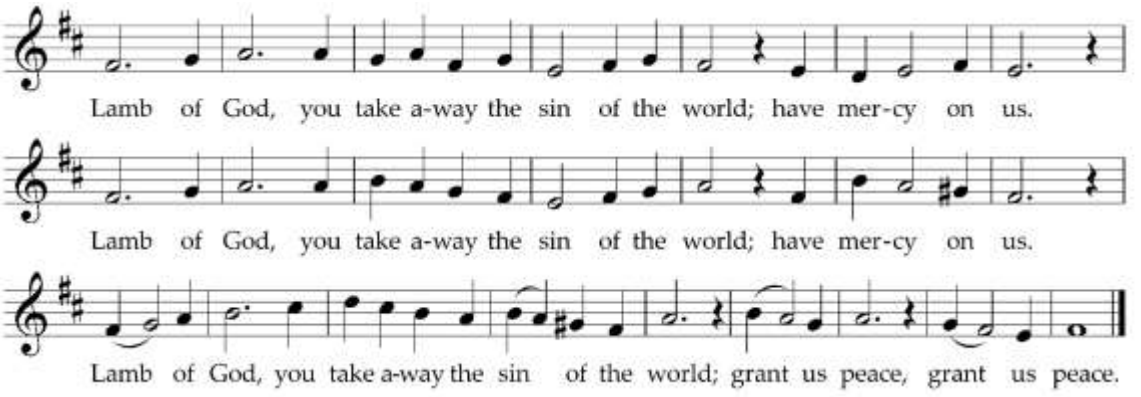
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever.
Amen.

+LAMB OF GOD



Please be seated.

COMMUNION INVITATION

All are welcome at the table. This is Christ's table where no one is a stranger.

For those worshiping at home, hear these words spoken for you: The body of Christ given for you. The blood of Christ shed for you.

These are the gifts of God for the people of God.
Thanks be to God.

All are welcome at the table.
Grape juice and gluten-free wafers are available upon request to the server.

An usher will direct you down the center aisle, where you can pick up a communion cup. You are invited to stand or kneel in front of the table, beginning from the middle and moving toward the outside. After you have received the bread and the wine, please return to your seat by way of the side aisle, where an usher will receive your communion cup.

If you wish to receive communion from your pew, please let an usher know.

DISTRIBUTION HYMN Hymn of Promise

DISTRIBUTION HYMN Look Who Gathers at Christ's Table

DISTRIBUTION HYMN Deep River

+BLESSING

The body and blood of Jesus Christ strengthen you and keep you in God's grace. Amen.

+POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Holy God, we have received your never-ending mercy in this meal. You continuously seek the lost, bind the injured, and feed your people abundantly. Now send us out, awake to your presence, now and forever.

Amen.

SENDING

+SENDING HYMN Holy God, We Praise Your Name

Children and youth are invited to join the worship leaders as they recess and gather at the rear of the sanctuary to share the dismissal.

+BENEDICTION

May the God of love
draw us together in Christ.
May the God of hope fill us with strength and joy.
And may the God of grace
✢ bless us now and forever.
Amen.

+DISMISSAL

Go in peace. Love your neighbors.
Thanks be to God.

COMMITMENT CARDS FOR 2027—NEXT WEEK IS STEWARDSHIP SUNDAY

We invite members and friends to consider making a financial commitment to the mission and ministry of Holy Trinity for 2027. Your gifts will allow us to support our dedicated staff, offer our space for community use, sustain our commitment to neighborhood recovery, and continue organizing for the wellbeing of all—especially in divisive times. You may pledge online or by filling out one of the pledge cards found in the Community Room.

This year, our congregation voted to make an extraordinary investment in this place through Rooted in Place, Open to All. We are inviting households to consider an additional capital commitment toward the $1.49 million remaining to complete the project. These are two different gifts, rooted in the same calling. So I invite you to consider: What annual commitment will help sustain and grow Holy Trinity's ministry in the year ahead? And what additional, personally meaningful gift might you make to Rooted in Place, Open to All over the next one, two, or three years? There isn't one right answer. The hope is that each of us will consider how we are called to participate in this community—to receive the care of others, offer what we have, and together make God's love tangible in the world around us

TAMALE SALES TODAY AT 11:00 A.M.

Supporting local food businesses owned by People of Color continues to be a goal this fall. Many of these businesses were severely challenged during Metro Surge last winter. This morning, you can help by buying tamales in the Community Room!

COMMUNAL VISIONING FOR MURAL WITH OLIVIA LEVINS-HOLDEN TODAY

Following worship, all are invited to join local artist and muralist Olivia Levins-Holden as we continue to collaborate on the design process for a community mural through the Our Deepest Belonging Storytelling Project. Across the coming months, Holy Trinity and each of our building partners will participate in visioning and storytelling experiences—sometimes within their own communities and sometimes together. Light food and beverages will be provided.

WE BLOOM WHERE WE ARE PLANTED

Help our community garden grow! Artist Leah Zobott's illustration of Holy Trinity celebrates our participation in Rooted in Place, Open to All. Together, we're tending the place where we're planted—making our building more accessible and welcoming for everyone who gathers here.

When your household makes a gift or pledge to the capital campaign, add a flower, bird, bee, or other garden creature to the display. Already given or pledged? Add yours, too! Each household adds one piece, regardless of gift size. Watch what blooms as we build this future together. Find pledge forms and giving information at htlcmpls.org/capital-campaign/.

NOMINATE A SPECIAL APPEAL FOR 2027

Special appeals are characterized by being open ended (i.e., we give to the organization(s) what we receive), they are normally approved for just one year, and they are supported by a special appeal email which is sent to all the giving households in the congregation.

If you have a 501©3 organization that you'd like to nominate, please contact one of the church's standing committees and ask for support of your nomination. By tradition, the World Hunger of the ELCA has been included as one of the causes designated for a special appeal and therefore does not need to be submitted by a standing committee. Nominations will be accepted until November 5, 2026. The congregation will vote on the recommended 2027 special appeals at our annual meeting in January.

STEWARDSHIP SUNDAY NOVEMBER 8

Join us in the sanctuary to celebrate God's work through the ministry of Holy Trinity. As we look toward our ministry together in 2027, we invite you to reflect on the theme "In Every Age." In every generation, God continues to call ordinary people into lives of courage, generosity, justice, and hope. Members of the Financial Stewardship Committee, Council, and pastoral staff will share how our shared financial commitments help sustain that calling—supporting the work of belonging, compassion, and transformation within our congregation and throughout our neighborhood. You will be invited to make a financial commitment in support of Holy Trinity's ministry for 2027. This gathering will take the place of the adult forum today. Breakfast tacos will be served!

STEELPAN ENSEMBLE AT HOLY TRINITY

Have you ever played steelpan? Would you like to try it out? Holy Trinity is gathering folks who are interested in playing steelpan together on Mondays from 5:30-6:30 p.m. in the choir room for the next couple months to play in worship during Advent and Sunday, January 17 when we will be joined by Zahra Lake, an Antiguan pan musician, director and arranger. No experience is necessary and you'll be taught everything you need to know as we go! Since space is limited, please reach out to Cantor Phil Radtke to confirm your spot with the group.

COME CELEBRATE WHAT WE'RE BUILDING TOGETHER THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5

All members are invited to the Community Launch of Rooted in Place, Open to All! Join us on Thursday, November 5, for a festive evening celebrating Holy Trinity, our building partners, and the community that brings this place to life. Come for refreshments, conversation, stories, and a chance to imagine together what's possible as we invest in a building that can welcome and serve our community for generations to come.

6:30–7:00 p.m. | Gather & Celebrate

7:00–7:30 p.m. | Stories, Vision & Impact

7:30–9:00 p.m. | Explore, Connect & Dream Together

Stay for as much or as little as you'd like!

MY FAITH STORY, MY LIFE STORY WORKSHOP WITH MARCELLA PROKOP
Saturday, November 7, 10:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.
Through literary examples, writing prompts, and conversation, writers of all backgrounds, beliefs, and skill levels are invited to develop drafts of their origin stories during this free workshop. Sign up in the Community Room to participate. Today is the last day to sign up.

DEPOLARIZING WORKSHOP PRESENTED NOVEMBER 10, 6:00-8:00 P.M.
If you anticipate recovering from the election or possibly preparing for holiday gatherings that might involve differences of opinions, this event might be for you. The Racial Justice/Indigenous Justice Committee will sponsor a 90-minute workshop presented by Braver Angels on "Depolarizing Ourselves." Braver Angels is a civic organization that develops educational tools to build bridges between political and societal differences. The presenter is Tammy Levi from Braver Angels. The event will be in the Holy Trinity Library Tuesday, November 10, from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m.. There will be a light meal from 6:00 to 6:30 p.m.. Sign up in the Community Room.
Participants will learn:

- Why political polarization has become so intense.
- How each of us has an "inner polarizer"—the tendency to stereotype, dismiss, or assume the worst about people with different political views.
- The difference between criticizing ideas, policies, or leaders and demonizing entire groups of people.
- Practical techniques for speaking about political opponents with greater accuracy, fairness, and respect.
- How to respond when conversations among friends, family, or coworkers drift into contempt, ridicule, or sweeping generalizations.

What makes this workshop different?
Many depolarization efforts focus on conversations between people who disagree politically. This workshop starts somewhere else. It asks participants to examine their own habits before trying to change anyone else's. Rather than persuading participants to moderate their political beliefs, it encourages them to become more thoughtful about ho they express those beliefs and how they describe fellow citizens who see things differently.

MAKERS AND BAKERS ADVENT BAZAAR SUNDAY, DECEMBER 6, 8:30 AM-12:00 P.M.
The youth are spreading holiday cheer to help usher in the Advent season. Whether you have a homemade craft or jam to share, a batch of sugar cookies, or hand-knit socks, you are invited to plan ahead and donate your goods. Please sign up in the Community Room. All proceeds help to support summer 2027 programming for confirmation and post-confirmation youth. The bazaar will take the place of the adult forum.

ADULT FORUM

9:00 a.m. each Sunday

TODAY Adult Forum to Honor the Saints

Today we remember those sinner-saints who have died before us. Too rarely are we given the opportunity to talk with one another about the loss of beloved friends and family members. This year, we invite you to bring pictures of the saints in your life and display them in the Library during the adult forum hour.

November 8 Stewardship Sunday in Place of Adult Forum

Join us in the sanctuary to celebrate God's work through the ministry of Holy Trinity.
