THE CITY, NOT FORSAKEN, IS HOLY, HOLY GROUND

Next week, with the help of some middle-school guides, our elementary-aged students will transform the gym into a city of their own design. They'll build their own homes, then decide what other places their community needs or wants—libraries, parks, hospitals, restaurants, etc. I'm sure we'll have some very creative city planners! Students will spend a significant amount of time considering the design of their city and their place in it. Will they choose to live near their friends? Near their work or public transportation? Next door to the zoo? They'll reflect on how it feels to make these decisions—how does their design reflect their values? Have we created the sort of healthy and just neighborhood that God has created us to build? Does everyone have the same freedom to make choices like these, both in our imagined city and in reality?

Without giving too much away, I can share that things will not always be easy for the residents of our yet-unnamed city. They'll face unexpected challenges and need to learn some basics of community organizing in order to fight back. We'll engage in some power analysis, come up with a plan, and hold a meeting with an elected official. We'll have some visitors whose real-life work is making sure our communities are healthy and equitable, and we'll hear how their faith inspires them. And, as in any good movement, we'll sing plenty of songs together along the way. We'll begin each evening with a community meal at 5:30 p.m.

We can't tell you how any of this is going to turn out—it's really in the hands of the city's future residents, but I hope you'll come down to the gym when you're here on Sunday, August 20. We'll have some of the city's residents and leaders available to give you a tour and tell you the story of the week.

There is still room in our city for more children to attend! Please email Ann Schrooten, Coordinator of Children, Youth, and Family Ministry at aschrooten@htlcmpls.org to register. If you consider yourself a friend to our community of children and youth and would like to serve as a "guardian" during the week by providing the evening meal or by welcoming visitors at the city gates, Ann would LOVE to hear from you.

PEOPLE OF COLOR LISTENING CIRCLE INVITATION FROM PASTOR INGRID AND MICHAEL DOUGLAS, COUNCIL MEMBER

We would like to invite Holy Trinity members (18+ years of age) who identify as people of color for a meal and conversation at Holy Trinity, the first of three circle conversations that we'll host over the next several months. There are no expectations placed on the evening. Simply stated, this is a time for those who wish to grow in relationship with other members of color at Holy Trinity. We can secure childcare; let us know if that would be helpful. Please email Michael Douglas (michaeldouglas1968@gmail.com) or call the church office (612)729-8358 and let us know if you plan to attend the (free) meal and conversation on Thursday, September 14, from 6:00-9:00 p.m.

ENDING HOMELESSNESS TOGETHER, WED., OCT, 25, 12- 1 P.M.

Beacon Interfaith Housing Cooperative will host a lunch and fundraiser on Wednesday, October 25, from 12:00-1:00 p.m. at the Minneapolis Convention Center. Free parking passes will be given to each guest. You will be served lunch while learning more about Beacon's programs. There will also be inspiring personal stories shared by residents who live in one of the Beacon facilities. Sign up in the Community Room; contact Mike or Marilyn Miller for more information.

TENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Elijah finds the presence of God not in earthquake, wind, or fire, but in the sound of sheer silence. When the disciples face a great storm on the sea, they cry out with fear. Jesus says: "Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid." Amid the storms of life, we gather to seek the calm presence of Christ that soothes our fears. In comforting words of scripture and in the refreshing bread and cup of the eucharist, God grants us peace and sends us forth to be a sign of God's presence to others.
