WORSHIP AND FINE ARTS COMMITTEE

Curious, isn't it, how an age-old lesson needs to be relearned time and again? In this case, the best way to kill a vital activity is to try to preserve it. Or put more proactively, to keep an activity vital, seek constantly to challenge it, to improve it, to nudge its growth and evolution.

Holy Trinity has re-imagined its Worship and Fine Arts Committee with this principle in mind. Our congregation has a marvelously strong and appreciated worship life, with outstanding preaching, fresh liturgy, elegant music and a beautiful facility. It would be so tempting to try to keep it as it is. That, probably, would lead to its demise.

So a newly reconvened Worship and Fine Arts Committee has been defined by maintaining the current excellence of our shared worship life while looking for ways to challenge, enhance and renew it. We want to continue our current practice of trusting our talented staff with planning and implementing the daily and weekly logistics of our worship life, with all the support activities that occur behind the scenes. Our committee's work will be oriented more toward policy and over-arching themes for planning. We seek to affirm and uphold the fine work of our current worship leadership team.

In our first months we are working on a series of congregation-wide conversations such as: How can we improve our liturgical language, song and worship patterns? How can we keep fresh and relevant our seasonal design of our worship spaces? What kind of "permanent" liturgical and fine art do we want in and around our facility? A second initiative aims to assess and propose alternatives to make our worship spaces more representative and welcoming to a diversity of cultures, races, and ages (especially children). A third initiative is to create a simple pamphlet that welcomes newcomers with an easy-to-follow guide for our worship service. Another initiative will explore commissioning a new baptismal font, advent wreath, kneeler, an additional processional cross, and other liturgical furnishings. Another initiative will update Holy Trinity's wedding and funeral planning guides.

We have agreed that we do not need to meet every month. Instead, we have sub-divided into task groups that invite other congregation members and people from the larger community who care about Holy Trinity to join us in work teams. These teams will then bring their proposals or plans to the whole committee for comment and endorsement, and as appropriate recommendations can then go to council, staff or whatever other congregational entity is appropriate.

Obviously, we have charted an ambitious agenda. But we have a strong team, and we have appreciated gracious encouragement from the congregation's staff and leaders. Currently our team is composed of: Jeff Olsen Biebighauser, Pam Kildahl, Karen Kunze, Jody Liedholm, Jan Mehlhoff, Marilyn Miller, and Keith Olstad (convener). For the present, our committee is staffed by David Sims, but Pastor Ingrid will assume that role when she returns from leave. We are interested in adding at least another member or two, so please contact Keith if you have a recommendation.

—Keith Olstad, Holy Trinity Member

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

In today's gospel reading, Jesus tells a parable of the vineyard, an image of Israel, the prophets' mission, and Christ's death. For Christians, the vineyard also speaks of God's love poured out in the blood of Christ, given to us for the forgiveness of sin. Grafted onto Christ the vine at baptism, we are nourished with wine and bread, that we may share Christ's sufferings and know the power of his resurrection.

OCTOBER 8 "Immigration Reality Check"
Marty Roers, Facilitator

Join us in the Bartsch Room as we examine and discuss the realities facing immigrants and refugees in Minnesota and our country today. The interactive presentation will be facilitated by Marty Roers from the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet's Justice Office. Marty has extensive personal experience ministering and advocating with and on behalf of our immigrant and refugee sisters and brothers locally, nationally, and internationally. Come to check what you know about immigration and engage with the community conversation on this important social issue.

OCTOBER 15 "Land and Water Distribution in Isarel, the West Bank, and Gaza"

Some Holy Trinity members have formed a group that is connected with the Peace with Justice Committee to discuss issues related to the Israel/Palestine conflict. Members of this group will present information on land and water distribution in Israel, the West Bank, and Gaza. Water shortages have added to the conflicts in the area and illustrate the disparities in living standards. Maps and visual presentations will show the changes in land distribution due to the Israeli settlements. There will be time allotted for comments, questions, and concerns.

GUEST PREACHER KEITH OLSTAD

We are pleased to welcome Keith Olstad, member of this congregation, as our preacher this morning. Keith's pastoral career led him into many congregations around the Twin Cities metro area, including Our Saviour's, Our Redeemer, Lake of the Isles, First Lutheran, Richfield Lutheran, Gethsemane, Peace, and St. Paul-Reformation. We are glad that Keith and his wife Libby landed at Holy Trinity in retirement.
