WELCOME TO NEW MEMBERS

Hannah Rector

I made my way to Minnesota when I attended college at St. Olaf. I went back to my hometown of Omaha for graduate school, and now live in Minneapolis. I work as a physician assistant at Regions Hospital and enjoy reading, learning to play guitar, and walking around the Chain of Lakes. I look forward to collaborating with you all on social justice issues and joining you in worship on Sundays!

Jonny and Olivia Diercks

After more than a year of attending services, we're excited to officially call Holy Trinity home. We grew up in Iowa, where we met in high school and were married in 2015. We have lived in Minneapolis for four years and absolutely love this community. Jonny is in his fourth year as an athletic trainer with TRIA Orthopaedic Center in Bloomington. Olivia is a cello teacher and half of the violin-cello duo The OK Factor. We look forward to becoming more involved with this incredible congregation!

Mark Hendrickson

I just retired from the ministry. I've been attending Holy Trinity on my Sundays off for 30 some years—so it was the natural choice when I retired. The vibrancy of worship is wonderful!

Rachel and Mike Nevergall

Growing up lifelong Lutherans, Mike and Rachel met and fell in love at Valparaiso University. They spent their 20s exploring Chicago, chased adventure to Austin, TX, for four years, until the Midwest called them home again last summer to settle in the Minnehaha neighborhood of Minneapolis. Mike works as a gift officer at Gustavus Adolphus College and Rachel uses her child development background through writing and caring for their children Caroline 5, Elliott 3, and one more to join the family in July. Keeping involved in the church community in a variety of ways has always been a part of each of their faith journeys and they look forward to exploring this at Holy Trinity.

Dan Reese

Originally from Florida, I relocated to Minneapolis in November to attend the Atelier of Fine Art. My paternal ancestry is of German Lutheran descent who settled in the Southwest Minnesota. The location and architecture inside and out attracted me to Holy Trinity. The music and Adult Forum made my decision. The goals, focus on social justice, and a practical Christianity addressing current, relevant issues inspired me to become a member. I am thrilled to be here.

Donna Goodlaxson

I was attracted to the social justice work of Holy Trinity. I am pleased to have an instant community of support for spiritual growth. I have worked as a farmer and environmental educator primarily in Montessori schools. I raised three children in rural Wisconsin before meeting Bob [Brose], a lifelong member here.

Mary Petersen

I was born, raised, and still live in St. Paul. I started coming to Holy Trinity two years ago and found everyone so friendly. In the past, I had a hard time feeling like I fit in, and now [at Holy Trinity] I don't.

Kathryn and Dave Howe

We were married in 1975 and raised our son and daughter in St. Croix Falls, WI. We were both Special ed. teachers. More recently we worked as educational consultants in the field of beginning reading instruction, especially in low-achieving, low-income schools. Dave enjoys wildlife and loves playing his guitars. Kathy enjoys reading, walking, beginning knitting, and working with others on justice issues. Our four granddaughters, two in Corvallis, OR, and two in Minneapolis, are the joy of our lives.

SECOND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Deuteronomy makes clear that sabbath-keeping is meant for the welfare of all. God delivered the Israelites out of slavery, so they should not ever work anyone else seven days a week. Even slaves should be able to rest; even resident aliens. Yet human beings can turn even the most liberating religious practice into a life-destroying rule. Jesus does not reject sabbath-keeping, but defends its original life-enhancing meaning. Our worship and our religious way of life are to lead to the hungry being fed and the sick being healed.

CONCERNING PEOPLE

Please pray for Pastor Ingrid and our new Associate Pastor, Pastor Angela Khabeb, who attended a continuing education event together last week, and for the Holy Trinity Community, as we prepare to welcome Pastor Khabeb and her family into our midst.
