CONGREGATIONAL GOALS

Several months ago, the Council started discussions about congregational goals. It was determined that the setting of goals needed to start with input from as many congregants as possible. So, at the annual meeting in January, congregants were invited to imagine five years from now, looking back at what Holy Trinity had done in the intervening years. Many people responded with an abundance of ideas and hopes.

A sub-group of the Council took all that input, identified themes that rose to the top, and came up with three proposed goals to pursue in the next 1-3 years. Here are the goals that will be presented to the Council for vote on May 21:

1) Continue to grow in competency and commitment to racial justice, moving from awareness to action within our local community.

We could fulfill this goal by:

Developing a congregational racial justice statement and adopting it through a congregational vote.

Identifying 2-3 community organizations in our immediate neighborhood led by communities of color and prioritize our partnership with them, offering HT's resources and deferring to their leadership.

Practicing "showing up" at events that aren't organized by HT, but are important to our community.

2) Grow in competency and commitment to issues of gender and sexuality in our congregation.

We could fulfill this goal by:

Renewing our commitment as a Reconciling in Christ congregation.

Offering opportunities to learn about living healthy lives as sexual beings, whatever our orientation or identity, using the Our Whole Lives curriculum across age groups.

Offering opportunities to learn about how life is experienced by people of various sexual orientations and gender identities.

3) Nurture faith and attend to our spiritual lives through education and faith practices.

We could fulfill this goal by:

Providing 2-3 educational opportunities for "beginners"—those new to a community of faith, returning to faith, or others who want to learn the basics.

Introducing 2-3 prayer practices for the congregation to explore together.

Some important things to remember about these goals:

They do not reflect all of the input gathered at the annual meeting, but they are a start at establishing an inclusive goal-setting process for Holy Trinity.

We must remain attuned to Spirit's guidance as we work with these, or other yet-unknown, goals.

These goals are a tool to give us some focus over the next two years. They are not meant to exclude any work that is already being done or that might arise.

These goals could be revised as the congregation sees a need for changes or refinement.

Ideally, people of all ages could find ways to participate in these goals.

DAY OF PENTECOST

On the fiftieth day of Easter we celebrate the Spirit, through whom and in whom the people of God are created and re-created. Pentecost is sometimes called the church's birthday, but might more appropriately be called its baptism day, since the gift of the Spirit is the fullness of baptism. Ezekiel's vision shows the Spirit resurrecting and re-creating not just individuals but a whole people. Romans makes it clear that God is in the process of re-creating the entire cosmos; yet the Spirit is also at work in the most intimate and personal way, praying in us "with sighs too deep for words" when we do not know how to pray.

PARISH INFORMATION

A LETTER OF THANKS AND GRATITUDE FROM CORI GERSHON

On April 17th I had major reconstructive surgery on my right shoulder. From the beginning of the planning stage for this surgery, I knew I could not do it alone. To know that I did not have to do it alone was the most profound and freely given gift I have ever had the privilege to receive. I know and believe that along with God's intent, the prayers and actions of you all at Holy Trinity ensured my successful passage through the surgery, transitional care, and out-patient follow-up care. Thank you. I am blest.

TRAINING SESSION FOR NEW (AND EXPERIENCED!) ACOLYTES IN GRADES 1-8, SUNDAY, JUNE 3, 10:00 A.M.

Serving as an acolyte gives children a way to contribute to worship that is both meaningful and rewarding. We will be adding some additional tasks for acolytes in the months to come, so current acolytes as well as those who would like to be an acolyte are encouraged to attend this session in the Sanctuary. Parents are also encouraged to attend.

BAPTISMAL FONT AT HOLY TRINITY

The baptismal font at Holy Trinity has stood at the center of our sacramental life for many decades. Last Sunday, Peter, Julian, and Diego heard words of love and life spoken when they were baptized during worship. They now join the many who have received those same promises at our font.

Our font is aging. The stone has eroded over many years of use. The pins that hold the three marble pieces together are not as strong as they used to be. Because of concerns related to its structural integrity, we've decided to remove it from the sanctuary. It will go into safe storage while the worship staff and Worship and Fine Arts Committee decide what would best serve our congregation in the years to come.

We give thanks for its years of faithful service!

ANOTHER BIRDING OPPORTUNITY

Encounter birds in their early morning singing and displaying at Wood Lake Nature Center on Saturday, June 2, meeting in the parking lot at 7:30 a.m. Bring binoculars and walking shoes. Led for Encore! by Keith Olstad.
