BREATHE RESTLESSNESS INTO ME

Thank you for all I forget are gifts, not rights.
Forgive me for all the grievances
I remember too well.
Save me from the self-pity,
the self-seeking,
the fat-heartedness
which is true poverty.
Guide me, if I'm willing (drive me if I'm not) into the hard ways of sacrifice which are just and loving.
Make me wide-eyed for beauty,
and for my neighbor's need and goodness;
wide-willed for peace-making,
and for the confronting power
with the call to compassion;
wide-hearted for love
and for the unloved, who are the hardest to touch and need it the most.
Dull the envy in me which criticizes and complains life into a thousand ugly bits.
Keep me honest and tender enough to heal,
tough enough to be healed of my hypocrisies.
Match my appetite for privilege with the stomach for commitment.
Teach me the great cost of paying attention that....I may know I am always on holy ground.
Breathe into me the restlessness and courage to make something new,
something saving,
and something true
that I may understand what it is to rejoice.

WORSHIP WITH GUEST PREACHER PAUL PRIBBENOW

Paul Pribbenow, the 10th president of Augsburg University, is recognized as one of the country's most engaging commentators and teachers on ethics, philanthropy, and American public life. Since joining Augsburg in 2006, Pribbenow has enhanced the University's role as an active community partner in its urban setting and has led a comprehensive strategic planning process known as Augsburg 2019.

ADULT FORUM

10:00 am – in the Library

JULY 15 "Mapping Neighborhoods" Paul Pribbenow and Tim Pippert

Paul Pribbenow and Tim Pippert teach an honors course at Augsburg University each year entitled An Interdisciplinary Examination of Homelessness and Affluence in the United States. It is designed to examine the extent to which varying degrees of housing and financial stability impact distinct subgroups and includes a detailed examination of stratification in the United States, analysis of consumer habits, geographic analyses of the Twin Cities, and in-depth conversations with individuals at both ends of the financial spectrum. Unfortunately, we don't have a semester; we have only 45 minutes!

JULY 22 "Mapping Prejudice Project" Kirsten Delegard

Kirsten Delegard is one of the co-founders of Mapping Prejudice and has a faculty affiliation with the Department of Geography, Environment and Society at the University of Minnesota.

A third generation Minneapolitan, Delegard has written extensively about the history of her hometown on the Historyapolis website. She has been a Legacy Research fellow at the Gale Library at the Minnesota Historical Society and has authored columns for the Southwest Journal.

CONGREGATIONAL PICNIC SUNDAY, AUGUST 5, 4-6 P.M.

Save the date for the Second Annual Inter-generational Picnic at Hidden Falls, Sunday August 5, from 4:00-6:00 pm. More details to follow.

SCHOOL SUPPLIES FOR LONGFELLOW SCHOOL

School supply ads are popping up! If you wish to donate school supplies for the students at Longfellow, put them in the box in the Community Room underneath the sign-up table. They need backpacks, folders, notebooks, index cards, paper, adult scissors, markers, colored pencils, mechanical pencils, and pens. Or, to make a donation for supplies, put "Longfellow supplies" in the memo line of a check payable to Holy Trinity.

PARISH INFORMATION

PEACE WITH JUSTICE OFFERS LUNCH & MOVIE SUNDAY, JULY 29

Have you ever wondered why the early European settlers felt it was acceptable to dominate and eliminate the native people of North America? Come grapple with the history of the papal edicts and watch the "Doctrine of Discovery" with fellow church members. Sandwich lunch provided at 12:30 p.m. Sign up by July 22.

REPRESENT HOLY TRINITY AT OPEN STREETS JULY 22

The annual Open Streets festival is on July 22 on Lake Street and down Minnehaha Avenue. We need help handing out 1,000 ears of corn to our neighbors as they walk, cycle, scooter, or skate by. Sign up in the Community Room for a shift or email Meghan Olsen Biebighauser at molsen@htlcmpls.org. We're also looking for volunteers to staff a bike-decorating station, so indicate if you're open to getting crafty and working with that project, too.

POP-UP CHOIR SUNDAY, JULY 15

Everyone is welcome, from those who can't commit to weekly rehearsals during the school year but have always wanted to sing, to those who have sung in the choirs for years. Family and friends who are visiting are also welcome! Rehearse at 9:45 a.m. in the Sanctuary for the 11:00 a.m. worship service.

LUNCH AND MUSIC IN THE GARDEN SUNDAY, JULY 15

On Sunday, July 15, Trio Mexico will provide lively music for our second Music in the Garden event of the 2018 season. This fun-loving group of friends gathers almost every Friday night to make music together...sometimes in a public arena, sometimes in a home. A $5 donation per person for the wood-fired pizza lunch is suggested, but don't let that keep you away. Join us "in the garden" for music and lunch immediately following the 11:00 service.

LIBRARY NOTES

Have you heard about The Great American Read, a project of PBS? They identified 100 of Americans' favorite novels. Meredith Vieira hosted a two-hour special introducing these books (video and list of books available on pbs.org). PBS is encouraging people to read one or more of these books over the summer and to vote (often!) for their top pick. We happen to have 40 of the titles in our church library! They are displayed on the bookcases by the north windows. If you've missed some good reads, pick up one or more at church, then go online to vote. If you want to browse the books on a weekday, just ask a staff member to let you into the library.
